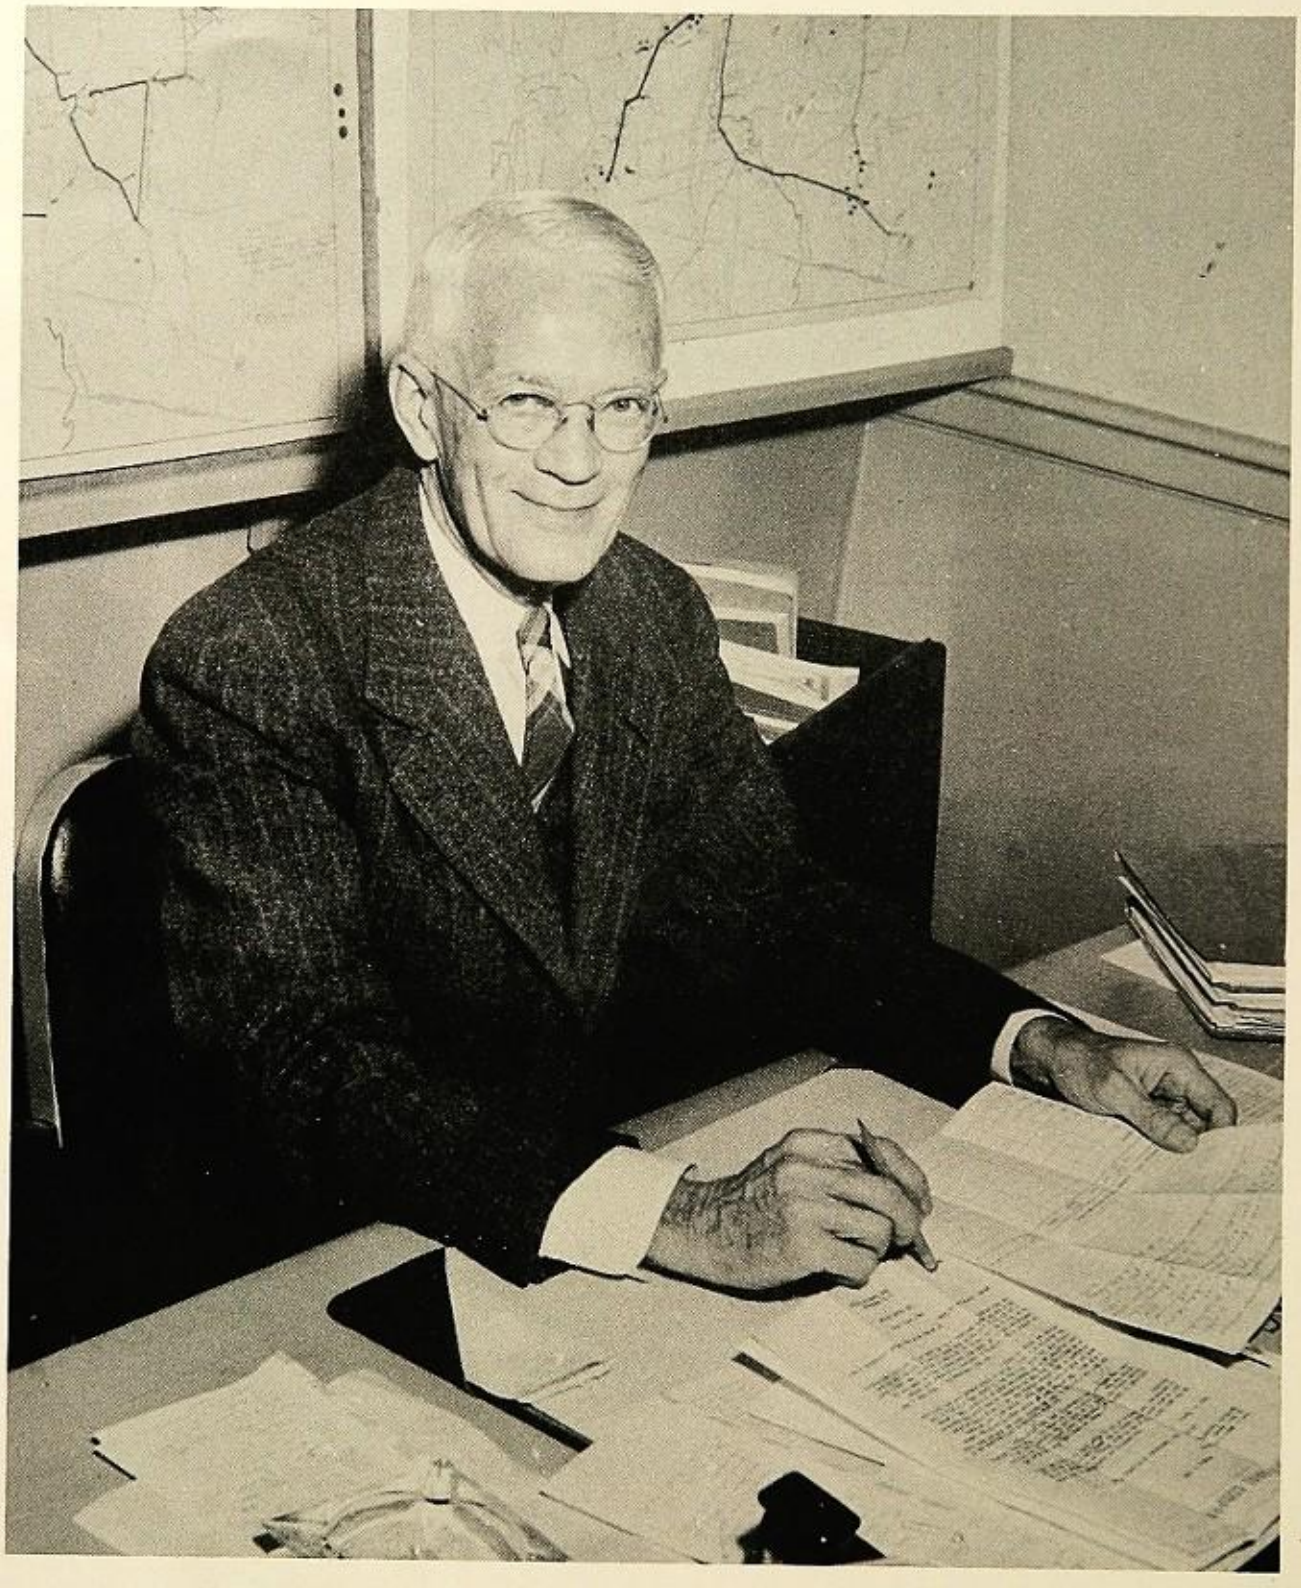
Dedication



Mr. William M. Strong

Wm. M. Strong

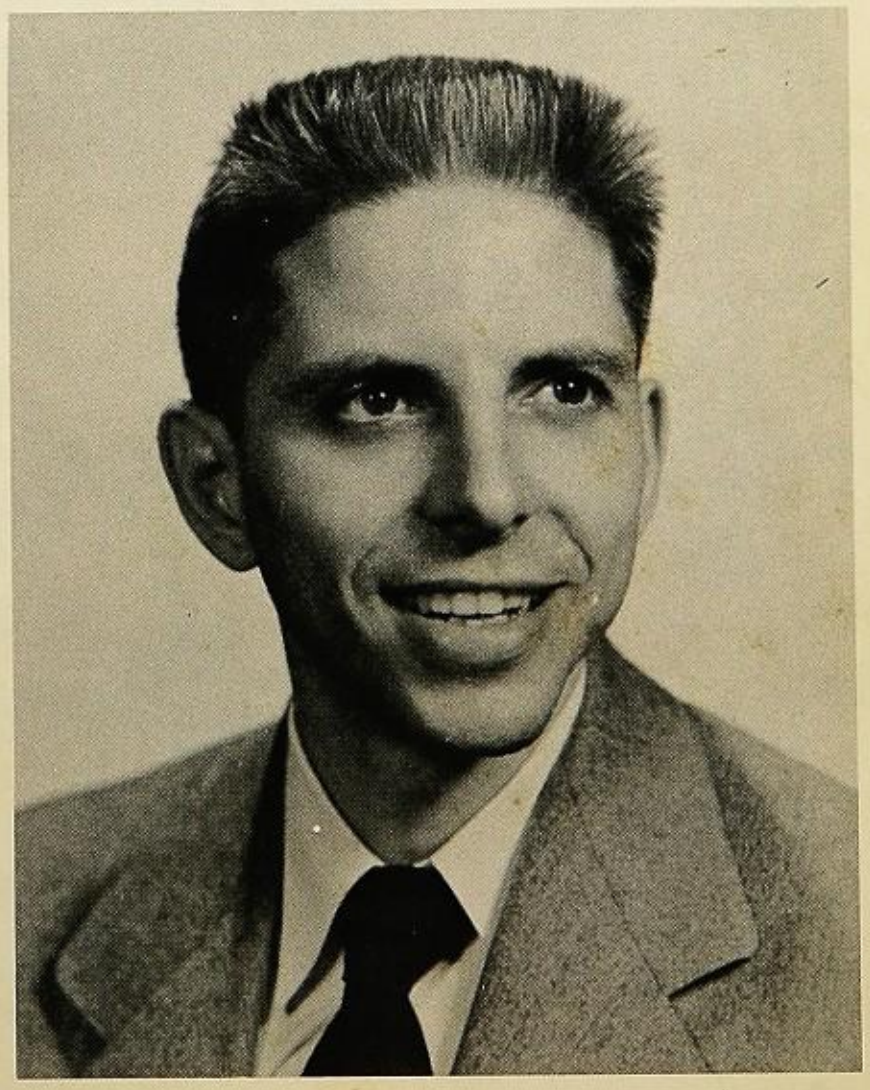
It is with a sense of humble acknowledgement of your sincere interest and untiring efforts that we, the Class of '55 are proud to dedicate our Chronicle to you, Mr. William M. Strong, on behalf of your many friends and townspeople. Your name will live forever with us, and the marks of your hard work have left, and will continue to leave a definite impression on our school and town.

Miss Elizabeth Shorey

Elizabeth Shorey

Appreciation

We wish to extend our sincere appreciation to Miss Elizabeth Shorey and Mr. John Gale for their unmatched leadership and direction. They have been more than advisors, but have inspired and guided us through these past four years. Our aim: to live up to their expectations.



Mr. John Gale

Class Poem

Our high school years are like a brook
That glides quickly ever onward.
Responding to a silent call
To hurry always forward.

Like each new-found challenge
Are the stepping stones across.
Some, time-worn by others' treads,
Stand as proof of gain or loss.

To test the mettle of our class,
The slippery stones are there.
On future happiness depends
Our triumph over trial and care.

Victory over little trials
Brings joy and sure elation;
A helping hand to guide us
Is each little exultation.

And as we reach the other side,
What seemed an incessant journey,
With games, dances, and the fun,
Is now just a pleasant mem'ry.

Our time together is ending,
Our ideals will always survive,
And may God grant many blessings
To the Class of '55 — Rachel Taylor

CLASS CALENDAR

Freshman Year "Babies of S.H.S"

September: 1951-1952

The Class of '55 held its first high school election. Results were as follows: Beansie, Pres.; Bronco, Veep; Elvira, Steno; Ann, Money Holder. Mary Ellen reports all news to Emblem. Mr. Gale, as advisor, led us through our first year.

October:

We attended our first dance at S.H.S., the Freshman Welcome Dance. And boy, what a welcome we got; one we will never forget.

November:

At our first Thanksgiving football game our Frosh players might not have been stars, but we remember Bender, Clements, Barry, Llodra, Terry, Binkowski. Incidently, the game was won 27-6.

December:

Florian, Llodra, Johnson, Ingriselli, and Palmieri brought honor to our class by tallying points on the basketball Jayvees.

January:

We gave our first gala affair. It was a dance called "Snowball" with Tony Iorillo's Orchestra. It was a big success and we netted $60 profit.

February:

Senior Valentine's Dance. Fran and Skitch (Yogi?) were the two lucky kids chosen as our class pages.

March:

We came in last in the Magazine Drive — our motto: "If at first you don't succeed, try and try again."

April:

We then saw Terry, Llodra, Salzillo, Moore, Doran, Simone, Flynn, Klopfenstein, Ursone, and Lachelt clad in shorts and tee shirts getting in shape for track.

May:

Zukie, Coppola, Barry, Lombardo, Thorpe, Smulski, Ingriselli, Palmieri, Buteau, LePage, Binkowski, and Daly favored the baseball team with their presence.

June:

We then realized that we were two months away from being Sophomores.

Sophomore Year "Sophisticates of S.H.S."

September: 1952-1953

Promptly we elected our officers with Zukie emerging as Pres.; Fran, Veep; Elvira, Steno; Ann, Money Holder. Zukie it seems was out numbered.

October:

Yogi, Lachelt, Fran, and Smith will govern our Soph. Class as members of the Student Council.

November:

There seemed to be singing talent in our class, for Mitch and Martin joined the Minstrels and added much to the group.

December:

With bop setting a new pace we put on a Soph Bop Hop with a dance contest won by two real cool cats.

January:

We found the departure of Elvira and Alex two of our very good friends. This brought an opening for class steno which Mary Ellen was elected to fill.

February:

At the annual Valentine Dance, Skitch and Babs Ray represented our class as pages.

March:

We gained $200 for our class treasury by winning the Magazine Drive. Ann brought more glory to our class by becoming the top salesman in the school.

April:

The Student News, the first newspaper of its kind in S.H.S., was born. It without doubt, brought fame to our class.

May:

We now had official morale boosters in our class. Barbara O., Bobbie W., Barb K., Selah, and Ann donned the S.H.S. cheerleaders uniform.

June:

With the end of our sophomore year we lost the wonderful guidance of our advisor Mr. Gale.

Junior Year "Upper Classmen"

September: 1953-1954

Zukie, Pres.; Yogi, Veep; Ann, Steno.; and Selah, Money Holder were elected as our class officers with Miss Shorey as our new class advisor.

October:

Student Council held its first session. With Fran, Babs Ray, Skitch, Smith and Lachlet representing the Junior Class. Rachel became assistant editor of The Emblem.

November:

As football season ended Jerry and Joe were elected '54 co-captains.

December:

"Mistletoe Magic" was the theme for our Junior Prom with the heavenly music of Sonny Pappalardo.

January:

Thorpe, Florian, Nardi added greatly to the success of the '54 basketball team.

February:

Joe and Ann were the ones to represent our class at the Valentine Dance as pages.

March:

With the success of last year's Magazine Drive lingering in our minds we became over confident and placed third. We still received $50 for reaching quota.

April:

"Junior" Minstrel," the first variety show of its kind at S.H.S. With no one ever forgetting Skitch, Donnie, Zukie, Finnie, Terry, Woodsie and Bob as the hilarious endmen.

May:

The lucky brains who were admitted to the Honor Society were: Gretchen, Mary Ellen, Dot, Mary Ann, Marie, Ann, Rachel, Joan, Lombardo, LePage, Lachelt and they really deserved it. Barb and Selah were chosen co-captains of cheerleaders. Dot, Gret, Gail, Mitch, Landino, and Smedberg were honored by being chosen to compete in the Junior Recital.

June:

Fran, Ann, Skitch, and Zukie were chosen to spend one glorious week as representatives to Girls' and to Boys' State on the campus of U-Conn.

Senior Year "Big Wheels"

September: 1954-1955

Zukie, Pres.; Yogi, Veep; Ann, Steno; and Jimmy, Money Holder felt very proud to be the ones to lead us through our last year. Seniors creamed Frosh after football team creamed East Haven.

October:

Rosemarie, Joyce, Finnie, Smith, Perry and Skitch (Pres.) were elected to Student Council. Betty Ann and Mitch had the headache of putting the Chronicle together but we know they felt honored to do it.

November:

The seniors: Co-captains Llodra and Clements, Perry, Kirkland, Palmieri, Lachelt, Barry, Flynn, Ursone, Thorpe, Lombardo, Terry, and Zakrewski led the gridiron to an undefeated season who became State Champs. Three out of this history making team, Joe, Ray and Jerry made All-State.

December:

Finnie (captain) Eddie, Bernie, and Ray led the basketball team to a highly successful season.

January:

Rachel, a deserving member of our class, worthy of the honor, received the D.A.R. Citizenship award which was based on service, scholarship, and character.

February:

There proved to be dramatic talent in our class when the Senior Play was presented. Woodsie, Skitch, Fran, Terry, Gret, Gail, Bobbie, Dot, Mitch, Joe, Margie, and Al displayed this talent in "Come Out of Your Coma." Miss Shorey and Mr. Matheson directed the whole affair and without them it could never had been done. Dot and Mitch reigned as King and Queen at the annual Valentine Dance. And what a gay reign they had.

March:

With everyone doing their part in the Magazine Drive the senior class did quite well.

April:

Rachel, Ann, Dot, and Gret preside as officers of the National Honor Society.

May:

Soft lights and decorations at the Senior Prom proved a romantic atmosphere that added to our treasury of memories.

June:

We held our Class Night at the Waverly and after this came Graduation. Although we were glad to graduate we did not like or think that all the fun of high school was now behind us.

CLASS

MISS ARMSTRONG	Because in sewing you are so nimble, We give to you this little thimble.
MR.BADRIGAN	To you who are so very grand, This baton we leave to lead your band.

MR. RATHBUN	To keep your track team up to par, To you we leave this racing car.
MISS SHOREY	To help keep your new car on the go, We give to you a can of Sunoco.
MR. SIEMIATKOSKI	Because in music you are so grand, We leave to you this rubber band.
MRS. WILKEY	Because you have been with us thru the years, We leave to you this bundle of cheer.

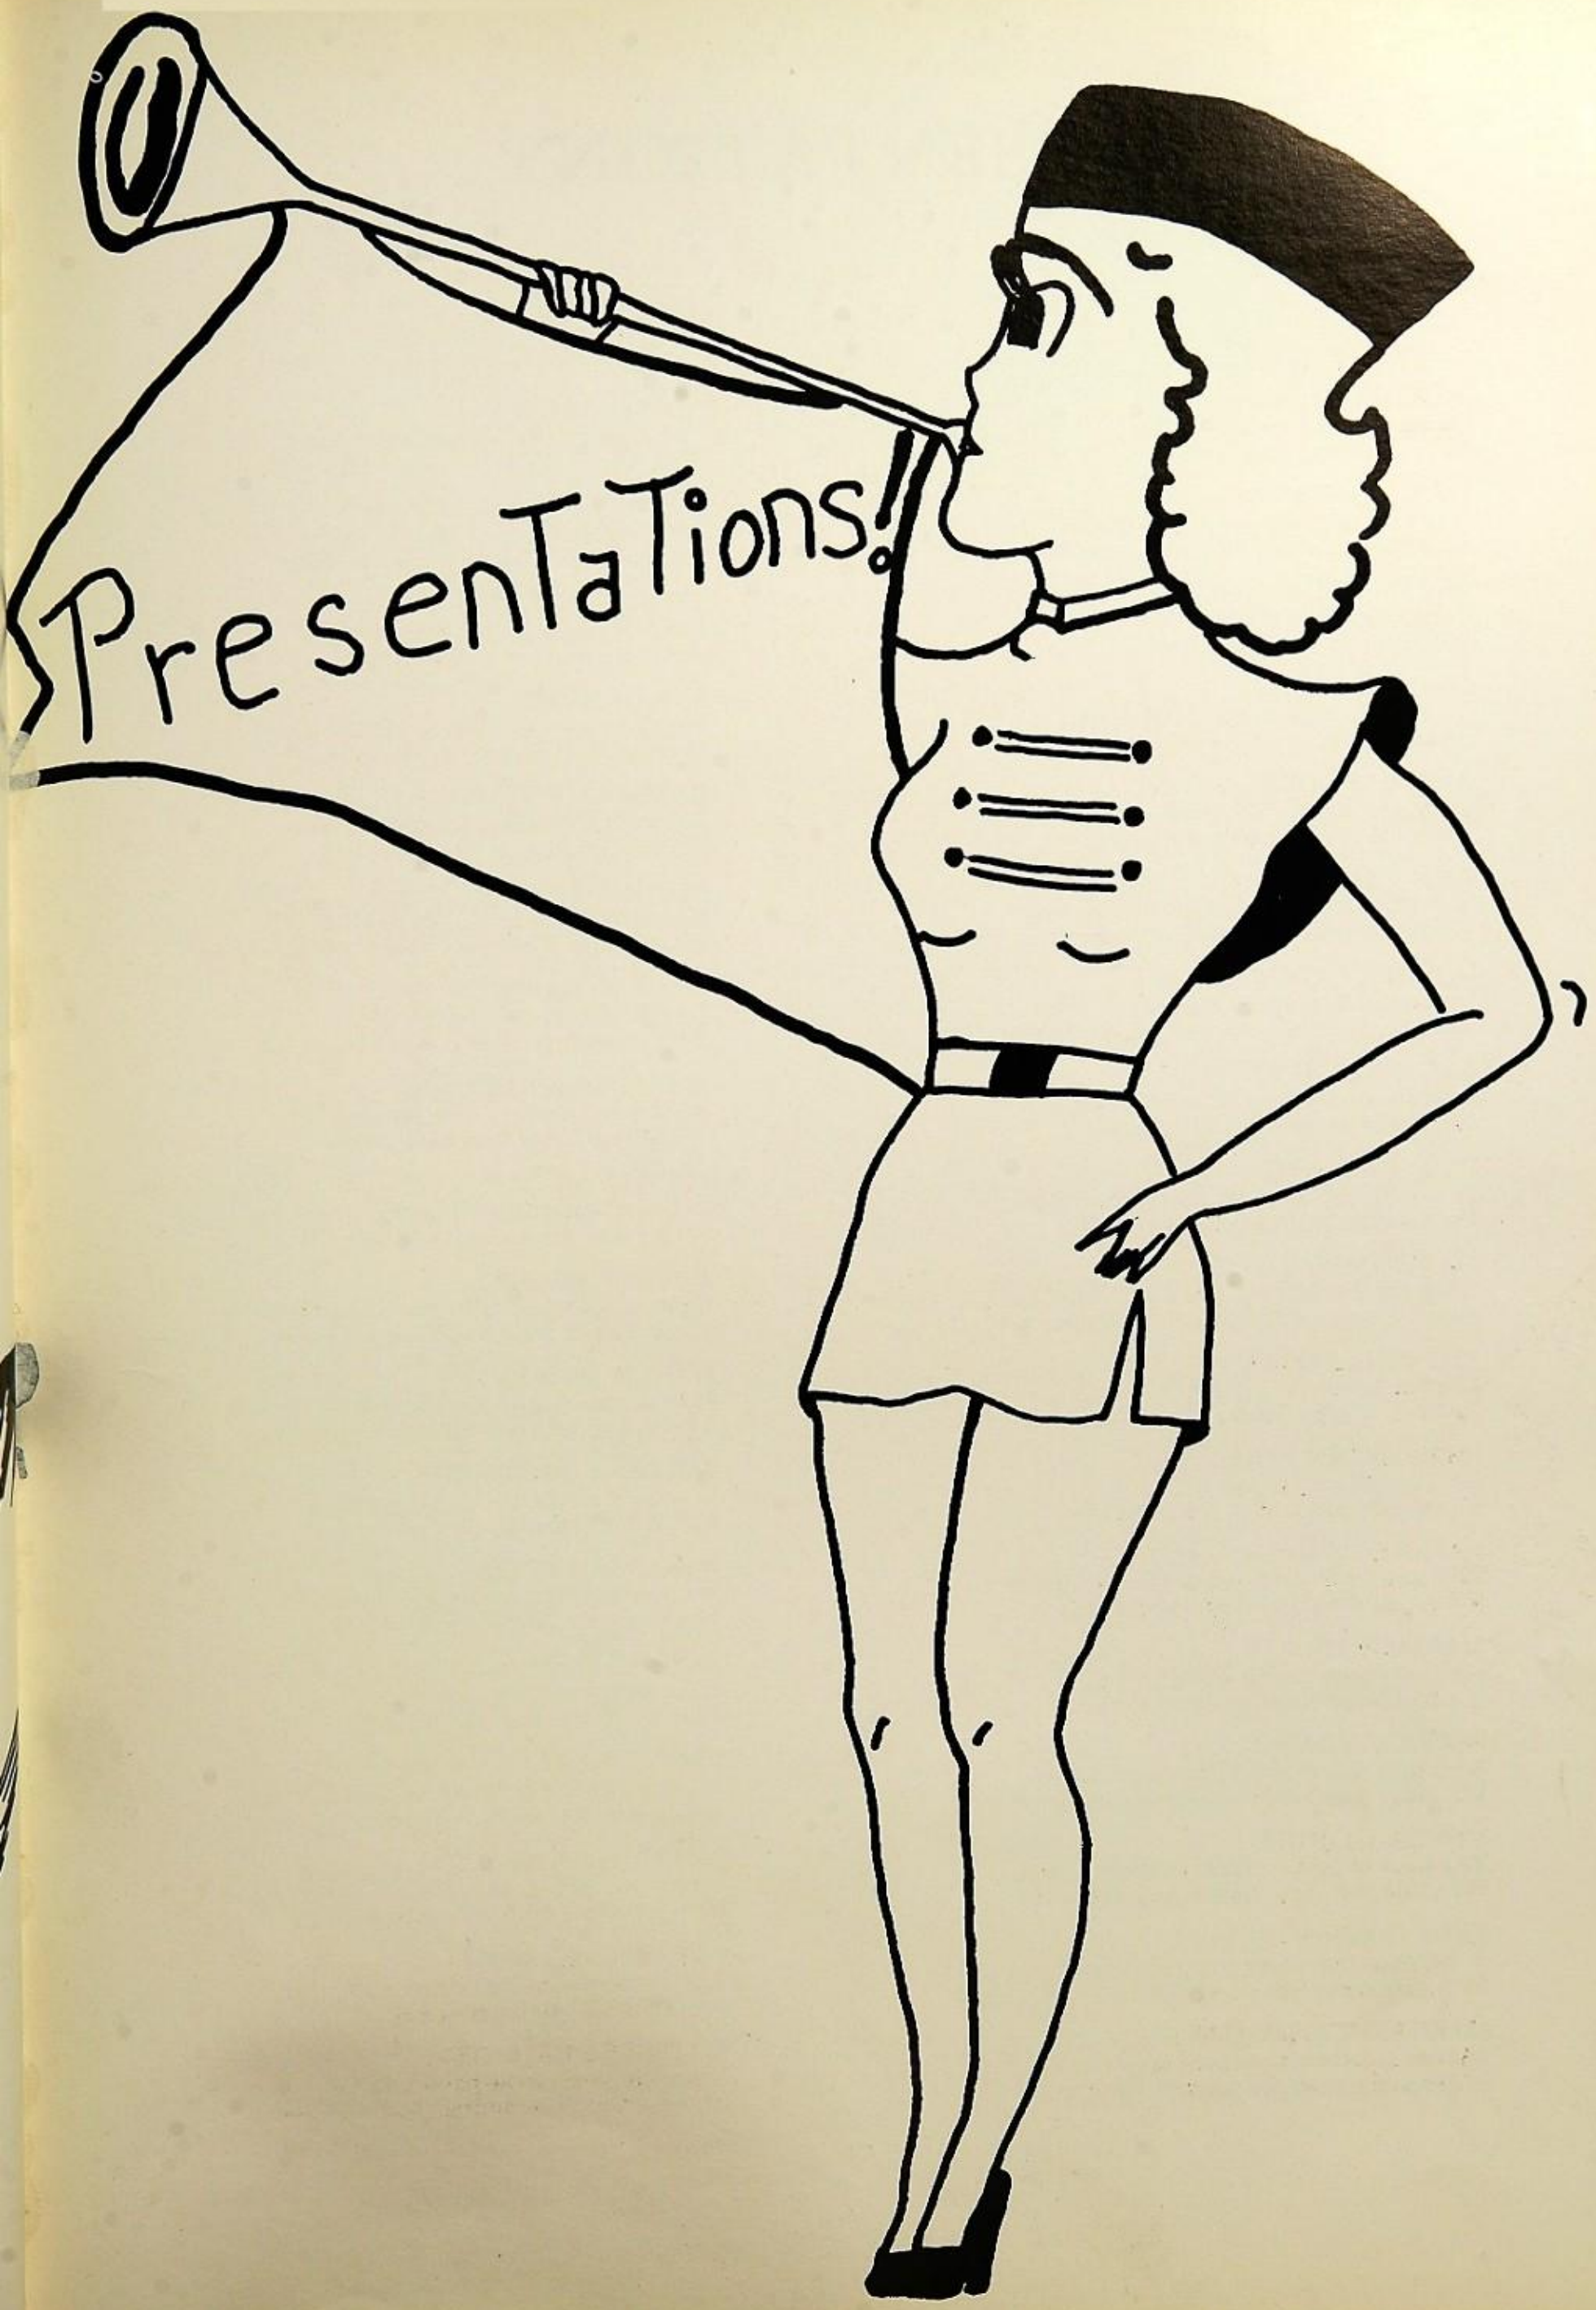
ALMA MATER

"Rugged mountains 'round about us
Rise to greet our happy throng,
As we set the echoes ringing
With our joyous triumph song.

All our heart in Southington High School;
All our cheers are for the blue
Loyalty shall be the watchword
Of our band so staunch and true."

"Happy are the days we spend here,
As we upward, onward move.
May our heart's devotion never
Faithless or disloyal prove.

And when time shall make us workers
In the world of might and right,
May our love for Southington High School
Keep our banner's honor bright."



PresenTaTions!

PRESENTATIONS

(GIRLS)

ROSEMARIE ALDI
While singing you do excell,
Here's a song, sing it well.

You never shout, you never yell,
So we'll hear you, here's a bell.

ELIZABETH SACHECK
Since you're a good pal all around,
You can use this address book well-bound.

MARJORIE SCHABEL
In the Senior Play you did so well,
So here's another play in which to excell.

JOYCE SIMONE
Because to Business College you soon will go,
We give to you a pile of dough.

BENTE SIVERTSEN
You were always such a pro in gym,
These exercises should keep you in trim.

BLANCHE SKENE
For the interesting walk you always do,
We have this medal to give to you.

ANN SWAIN
Because your hair is neat and prim,
Here's some scissors to keep it trim.

RACHEL TAYLOR
Cause from town you live so far,
We give to you a little car.

MARY ANN WAGENBRENNER
In dancing you are so swell,
So here's a new dance, do it well.

GRETCHEN WIEGAND
Because you are so full of pep,
Here's some vitamins to keep you in step.

DOLORES WILBUR
We give this book of stamps to you,
So your letters will go sailing over the blue.

MARGARET WILKEYSON
You came to S.H.S. rather late,
This list will tell you of each classmate.

BARBARA WINK
You love to laugh, you love to play,
This little feather should keep you gay.

ELIZABETH ANN ZDUNCZYK
There are many who are friends with you,
Here's a list of them, always be true.

(BOYS)

BRADFORD ANDERSON
Because your hair is so nice and bright,
We leave you this to dim the light.

ALBERT ANGILETTA
This book of facts we give to our class clown,
May its contents erase that puzzled frown.

RICHARD BARRY
To you we give this ball of twine,
So you will always have a line.

RICHARD BINKOWSKI
You wish to be a packer of meat,
So we'll start you off with these pig's feet.

PAUL BRUNELLI
Because your car is always broken,
For transportation you'll need this token.

JOHN BUSHER
Because you are a camera fiend,
Here's a tissue to keep it clean.

BERNARD BUTEAU
All the girls look at you and sigh,
Keep them away with this flashy tie.

DONALD CLARK
Since you live quite far from town,
Here's a flashlight to see your way around.

JEROME CLEMENTS
A football here large and brown,
We give to you, now go to town.

WILLIAM COPPOLA
Baseball is the game you love,
So here for you is a fielder's glove.

RONALD DAHLGREN
Since you came to our school late,
Here's a list of each classmate.

RICHARD DALY
A new delivery truck is all you need,
To deliver clothes with lots of speed.

DORAN DECKERT
The teacher's orders you never did heed,
We give you this apple which you may someday need.

HENRY DESCHENES
Although cleats may offer more glamor,
These rubber-soled shoes will lessen the clamor.

ANTHONY DiCAPRIO
Three times as class president you did excell,
We present you this medal — you deserve it well.

PHIL DORAN
This big hanky will be a need,
When you go out, your seeds to weed.

JOHN DORSEY
Soon you'll sail the ocean blue,
So this ship we give to you.

ANTHONY FALCO
Since you are so very quiet,
Here's a triumpet, make a riot.

JOHN FIONDELLA
Toting boxes your back can break,
Here's some liniment to ease the ache.

JONATHAN FLORIAN
Here's a golden basketball,
For the captain of our team, and a friend to all.

BERNARD GALLANT
In our band you played with class,
For next year's game we give you a free pass.

DONALD GRIMALDI
Because you work in a grocery store,
We give you a broom to sweep the floor.

FREDERICK HENDERSON
In our play you put up with girls' nonsense,
We give you this book on self-defense.

ALFRED INGRISELLI
This big new car we leave to you,
With a slight capacity of 102.

LAWRENCE JOHNSON
Because your old Ford is really a riot,
We give you a muffler to keep it quiet.

THOMAS KIRKLAND
Taking life easy is just your style,
So you'll greet this easy chair with a smile.

REX KLOPFENSTEIN
A scientist you wish to be,
So this test tube we give to thee.

LEON KOZLOWSKI
Your knowledge of farming is a factor,
To you we give this little tractor.

ERNEST KRULIKOWSKI
Wear this straw hat when you go out to plow,
The acres of corn to feed your cow.

DAVID LACHELT
Because a pliot you want to be,
A little plane we give to thee.

PETER LANDINO
At watching the clock you're really the best,
Here's a broken one, take a rest.

RICHARD LANDINO
With the play tickets you came through,
For our top salesman a blue ribbon we give to you.

ROBERT LePAGE
Since with an underclassman you seem to rate,
Here's a telephone to make a date.

JOSEPH LLODRA
With your clothes so slick and neat,
Wear this jazz bow that can't be beat.

JOSEPH LOMBARDO
Because baseball you seem to love,
We give you this fielder's glove.

RICHARD MARTIN
We hear that pool is your favorite game,
We give you a cue to improve your game.

JOSEPH MARUZO
At playing a Texan you're really great,
So here's a map of the state.

EDWARD MASTHAY
A scientist you want to be,
So some chemicals we give to thee.

ALBERT & ANGELO MAURO
Twins you are and twin you'll be,
Wear these signs for all to see.

ROBERT MITCHELL
In the Senior Play you proved quite funny,
This Hollywood contract will bring you money.

BURTON MONTAGUE
Because you have lots of lights on your grill,
Here's some money to pay the bill.

DONALD MOORE
For your car we leave self-polishing wax,
So all of your strength you needn't tax.

EDWARD NARDI
Many baskets you seem to score,
So here's a basketball, so you can make some more.

BYRON NILES
To get you up on the farm,
We leave you this alarm.

JOSEPH PALMIERI
With the fairer sex you seem to rate,
We give you a telephone to make a date.

JOHN PAUL
We give you this streamlined bike,
To court an underclassman you seem to like.

DOMINIC PERRY
In case you become a sailor, too,
This boat we give you to sail the blue.

FRANK ROMAJAS
Because you have a quiet manner,
To make some noise, here's a hammer.

JAMES SALZILLO
Your hair is a prize above sugar and spice,
So we give you this comb to keep it ever so nice.

ALFRED SARVI
The life of the party you seem to be,
This book of games we give to thee.

LEONARD SEITZ
We leave to you this gasoline,
So you can run your infernal machine.

ROBERT SHEPARD
We leave this set of encyclopedias to you,
For proof that your arguments are always true.

THOMAS SIMONE
We give you this book to make a date,
With the underclassman with whom you rate.

DAVID SKELSKEY
Does "x" equal one? Does "x" equal 2?
This pencil will figure it out for you.

ROGER SMEDBERG
Here's a lifetime membership in the F.F.A.
Because as a farmer, you are O.K.

RALPH SMITH
We think your accent is the greatest,
Here is a book on the latest.

LESTER SMULSKI
We leave you this broom because in your work,
You always were true and never did shirk.

ROBERT TARANTINO
Always willing to give us a ride you are,
So to you we present this nice little car.

MERVIN TERRY
It seems you're always driving around,
So we give you this map to show you our town.

RICHARD THOMPSON
A perfect saint is what you ain't and what you'll never be,
But this halo for your curly hair will make you heavenly.

RAYMOND THORPE
Because in football you were so great,
Here is a scholarship to Ohio State.

HARRY URSONE
Because you run and jump so high,
Here are some wings to help you fly.

ROBERT WEAVER
You love to drive around in your car,
Here's some gasoline to make it go far.

CHARLES WEBSTER
In our school you're always so quiet,
So here's a joke, create a riot.

ROGER WOOD
Such a good actor certainly deserves,
A bunch of celery to calm his nerves.

RUDOLPH ZADNIK
This guarantee for raise in pay,
So at the A & P you'll always stay.

PROPHECY

PROPHECY

Here we are at our first reunion of the class of '55. It was just ten years ago tonight that we were here at the Waverly Inn for Our Class Night festivities.

Gazing around the room we see so many familiar faces . . . let's walk around and reminisce with some of our old class mates . . .

Why here's the President of our class of '55 . . . Hi "Zukie"! We hear you're becoming quite the Politician, now running for Mayor of Southington! Sitting next to him we find "Yogi" Fiondella, Vice President of our class. In the past few years "Yogi" has become a successful businessman. And here's Ann Carmody, our Secretary. Ann, with her radiant smile, has been posing for tooth paste ads! Well, here comes our class Treasurer, Jim Salzillo. I hear he's broken many records on the track.

Now we see Betty Ann Zdunczyk, editor in chief of the Southington News, and Bob Mitchell, Minister, looking over their prize possession . . . the Chronicle of '55. Sitting next to Bob we find Margie Schabel, his organist. Marge tells me she's started raising her family of fifteen kids.

Hi Ray! (Thorpe) . . . I hear you're head coach at Notre Dame! For our entertainment tonight we have a special attraction . . . the famous Dixieland Band, currently playing in a small cafe in Greenwich Village. The band consists of Bernie Buteau, trombone; Dick Landino, sax; "Skitch," drums; Bob Tarantino, tuba; Don Clark, trumpet; Al Sarvi, piano; and last but not least, "Shep", clarinet.

As we wander through the crowd we run into Eileen and Joe Lombardo. Eileen tells me she's been using her nurse's training while taking care of Joe's pitching arm.

What's this?!! Oh, just "Bunny" Terry surrounded, as usual, by a group of females. But this time they are nurses: Jean Del Santo, Nancy Oberempt, Marie Montana, Barbara Ogonoski, Rachel Taylor, and Maggie Wilkeyson. It seems that "Bunny" broke his leg in the Army-Navy football game.

Here sits David Skelskey; he has just finished his latest book entitled "How to Obtain Perfection." We will always remember David as the brilliant Valedictorian of our class.

This looks like the engineers' convention . .. . we see "Beansy" Binkowski, "Foof" Le Page, Bernie Gallant, Rex Klopfenstein, Dave Lachelt, and Eddie Masthay.

My, how stylish Frances Cano looks! She's a famous model in New York. Seated near Frances we find Dot Coukos, Mary Ellen Ferrucci, "Bobbi" Wink, and Gretchen Wiegand . . . all talking a mile a minute. From the conversation we gather that "Bobbi" and Gretchen are career girls; "Bobbi" being a famous interior decorator in Boston, and Gretchen being an up and coming research chemist. Dot and Mary Ellen, on the other hand, have given up their respective careers of physical therapy and nursing to settle down and raise their families.

Flash cameras are going off a mile a minute around here. Our shutterbugs are Paul Brunelli, John Busher, and Joe Maruzo. Rosemarie Aldi is now a vocalist with a famous name band in Hollywood. Also singing we find Barbara Kitchen . . .. oh, she's a nurse, too.

Here come the farmers! Larry Johnson, Henry Deschenes, Leon Kozlowski, Burt Montague, Roger Smedberg, Ernie Krulikowski, Byron Niles, and Pat Paul (chickens.)

Why there's Marian Furrow. We often hear her pleasant voice when we make a telephone call . . . she's head operator in Meriden. Joan Goggin is teaching arts and crafts at the high school, while Bente Sivertsen is the girls' physical education instructor.

Now we see Ralph Smith, editor of Southington's new paper, "The Daily Herald." He's looking over the first edition of "The Crusader." There's Phil Doran; he recently broke the record for the American Four Minute Mile. Congratulations, Phil!

We hear that Tommy Simone is the president of Simone Brothers, Inc. Joyce Simone takes dictation from her cousin. Others in her profession are: Jo Ann Marotto, Pat Giano, Pat Folcik, Gerry Rungi, Gail Andrews, Ann Cassella, Johanne Donia, Dolores Wilbur, Sarah King, Carol Deckert, Betty Sacheck, Josephine Rossitto, and Marie DePaolo. Marie and Gail also raise horses as a hobby.

Here we find Muriel Glidden' . . . I'm told she runs a jewelry store, specializing in diamonds. Willie Coppola is in the money; he owns the biggest doughnut factory in the United States!

The gals with the beautiful hair are Ann Swain and Maxine Limmer, co-owners of "Ye Olde Beauty Shoppe." As new managers of the combination A & P-First National Store we have Rudy Zadnik, Lennie Seitz, Harry Ursone and Dick Martin. Dick Daly and Barbara Peters are doing well with their dry-cleaning business.

Scattered throughout the room, uniforms of our Armed Forces can be seen. Wearing the Navy blue are Dom Perry, Babe Dorsey, and Paul Barry. Others in uniform are Tony Falco, Pete Landino, Frank Romajas, Charlie Webster, Ron Dahlgren, Donny Grimaldi, and Donny Moore.

The newest sensation on Broadway is Rog "Billy" Wood. He's starring in a great play . . . "Come Out of Your Comedy"! "Finny" Florian is manager of Florian Products, Inc. and he's making scads of money!

Why there's Eddie Nardi, star of the Celtics; and Joe Llodra, "Bronco" Palmieri, Jerry Clements, and Tom Kirkland . . .. tremendous players on the Los Angeles Rams.

We find Mary Ann Wagenbrenner getting things started on the dance floor by teaching all the latest steps to everyone. Mary Ann runs her own social dancing school. Joyce Grover has an interesting profession; she is a veterinarian.

The sensational Mauro twins are playing for the New York Yankees. "Bazooka" Smulski plays center field for the same team.

Carpenters by profession are Doran Deckert and Brad Anderson. There's Al Ingriselli . . . he has just opened the "Ingriselli Taxi Serivce."

The two important looking gals in the corner are Pat Gugliotti and Peggy Grimaldi, both medical technicians. Also we find the housewives; Selah Hamlin, Lucille Moore, Judy Morelli, Jane Potter, Carol Rider and Blanche Skene.

And last but not least we see Al Angiletta, clowning around as usual. Al is a big celebrity on T.V. now . . . star of his own show . . . "People ARE Crazy"!!

Well, guess we've seen just about everybody. It's been grand fun going around to find out how all of our classmates have progressed in the last ten years. Probably on Graduation Day most of us would never have thought we would be where we are today. So before we leave, a few final words . .. . it's been fun . . . see you all in another ten years!

FOOTBALL TEAM

The Blue Knights closed out a tremendous football campaign this year by defeating Meriden High by a terrific score of 46-0 after steamrolling over all their other opponents for an undefeated string of eight wins. The Fontanamen scored 329 points themselves while holding the opposition to only 57 points for an average of 41 points a game.

The co-captains of this year's highly successful squad were Joe Llodra and Jerry Clements, who did an excellent job in guiding the Knights to victory. The rest of the Seniors who also did a fine job this year are Joe Flynn, Merv Terry, Joe Palmieri, Ray Thorpe, Dave Lachelt, Dominic Perry, Tom Kirkland, Harry Ursone, Joe Lombardo, and Paul Barry.

This is the fourth undefeated season since Joe Fontana has been at the helm of the Southington High Blue Knights football team in his 23 years of coaching. This year Coach Fontana has announced his retirement from the coaching staff and the class gives a rising round of applause for the splendid job he has done both on and off the gridiron.

Line: J. Clements, D. Bender, J. Flynn, J. Llodra, T. Kirkland, B. Celella, D. Perry, J. Porter.
Backfield: A. Meade, M. Terry, P. Cassella, J. Palmieri, R. Thorpe.

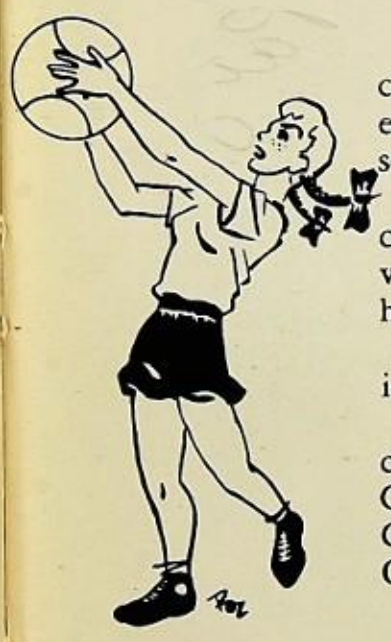
BASKETBALL CLUB



In 1954 and 1955 girls basketball was divided into two classes. The intramural class met on Thursday evening, from 7:00 o'clock to 9:30. Every girl who was interested in basketball was able to participate. Teams were chosen and a Tournament was set up.

The honor varsity was separate from the intramural group. Nineteen girls were chosen and they practiced two evenings a week from 5:00 o'clock to 6:30. The honor varsity represented Southington High School in games played against teams from other high schools.

A Sports Day was held on March 5th, with teams from Woodbury, Litchfield, Newington participating.

FIELD HOCKEY CLUB

In September the Field Hockey Club was organized to offer more of a variety of recreation for the girls who are interested in sports. Practices were held on every Thursday of the week and on additional days when it was necessary to practice for a game.

On Saturday, October 16, the Field Hockey Club participated in a Sports Day sponsored by Woodbury. Litchfield attended also. Southington ended the day with a perfect record and had the honor of playing the All Star team. The All Star team was made up of combined Woodbury and Litchfield players.

On November 10th, the Field Hockey Club went to Terryville and played a winning game there too.

SOFTBALL CLUB

At the beginning of spring a Softball Club was organized for the girls at Southington High School to enjoy. The girls practiced on Thursday afternoon of every week.

During the past season a class tournament was set up and a first team was selected from the group to play interscholastic games.

In May the girls softball team attended a Sports Day at Newington High School. Other teams attending were: New Britain, Woodbury, Bloomfield, Litchfield and Thomaston.

BADMINTON CLUB

In the past two years badminton has proved to be a very popular girls' sport having attracted a large number of girls. Attendance last year was so great that it was necessary to divide the group into two sections each meeting on Thursday evenings. One group met at 6:15 and the other at 8:00 o'clock.

Single and double elemination tournaments are held and a play-off to determine the champions ends the season in June.

BOWLING CLUB

The Girls' Bowling Club meets on Monday afternoon at the Southington Bowling Alleys. The club is divided into groups of eight who always bowl together.

The girls practiced in Play Days sponsored by Litchfield and New Britain.

At the end of year a tournament was held among the Southington girls. Here the highest bowler for the year was given an award and prizes were, also, given to the team with the highest aver-
